

The IRS start accepting returns on Monday, January 26, 2026.

You are receiving this email because I prepared your tax returns in the past, or you have inquired about my assistance preparing your 2025 tax returns. Thank you for trusting me with your tax needs.

The 2025 tax season had lots of changes to the Tax code. A few key changes are:

- |                                       |  |
|---------------------------------------|--|
| 👉 SALT Cap Raised to $40,000  | 👉 No Tax on Social Security       |
| 👉 No Tax on Overtime           | 👉 No Tax on Tips (up to $25,000) |
| 👉 Auto Loan Interest Deduction | 👉 More Plans Are Now HSA-Eligible |

Please review my website at www.riletax.com on steps needed to prepare your 2025 Tax return.

A few updates from last season:

1. I am available most evenings between 5:30 pm – 8 pm & Saturday mornings from 9 am -11:30 am
2. My phone number has changed. My new number is 619-535-7787
3. Review my 2025 engagement letter
4. Complete the new or existing client in-take form **
5. I added a scheduling calendar and virtual meetings through Zoom ***
  - a. If you would like to meet in person, please use the scheduling calendar to choose a date, then send an email that you would like to meet in person. I will confirm the appointment or provide an alternative date

Feel free to share this email if you know anyone who needs their taxes filed.

** In-take form located on this email and on my website under services/documents

*** Scheduling available on this email and on my website under contacts/appointment

New Client- In take

Returning Client- In take

Schedule an appointment

Sincerely,

Phillip Rile

Rile Tax Service